F	Affiliate Member – Service or ancillary product provider only (turnover n/a)

- 1.2 AFI's current membership fee for each band is available on the AFI website <http://www.afiorg.uk>
- 1.3 Membership runs from January 1st to December 31st each year.
- 1.4 Members joining before 30th June will pay for their first year's annual membership pro-rata based upon the number of months (full or part) to year end.
- 1.5 Members joining after 30th June will pay pro-rata for the remainder of the current year plus the following year.
- 1.6 Renewal will be in January and subsequent years' membership will run from January to December.
- 1.7 Payment can be made by BACS transfer, or cheque.
- 1.8 Membership fees are not refundable once paid.
- 1.9 All AFI members must meet and maintain the requirements of the AFI Code of Practice (CoP). Membership is granted once the member has provided evidence of meeting the CoP via a completed application form, a satisfactory credit and trading standards check, and receipt of satisfactory supplier and customer references.
- 1.10 Once the necessary entry criteria have been met and evidenced, membership becomes active following final approval and sign-off by the Chief Executive.
- 1.11 Membership fees are reviewed on an annual basis. Members will receive at least one month's notice of any changes to the fee, which will become active at their renewal.
- 1.12 Members are required to display the AFI logo on any letterheads and promotional material including websites and advertisements.

2. Benefits

- 2.1 A list of current member benefits and services is available upon request, or at all times on the AFI website www.afiorg.uk
- 2.2 Benefits and services may change in order to provide best value and suit the needs of members and their marketplace. Members will receive at least one month's notice of any changes, which will become active following the expiry of the period of notice.
- 2.3 Entry Level (Band A) Associate membership (see paragraph 6) is designed for the smaller company whose reduced annual subscription gives access to a reduced number of AFI benefits and services, specifically those which are designed to help them develop and grow. Full details are available on request or on the website.

- 2.4 Full Members (Bands B-D) can access ALL benefits and services free of charge.
- 2.5 Benefits, including the use of the AFI Logo, are only available to the member whilst a current subscription is in force.

3. Renewals

- 3.1 The renewal fee is due within 7 days of invoice. Invoices are raised at the end of each calendar year and dated January 1st (of the new year).
- 3.2 Renewal requires that members complete an Annual Declaration of continued eligibility, i.e. to declare their ability to continue to meet the requirements of AFI's Code of Practice.
- 3.3 It is the responsibility of the member company to keep AFI's updated of any changes in their circumstances or contact details, and in particular any issue likely to affect their ability to maintain the AFI Code of Practice.
- 3.4 AFI accepts member declarations in good faith and cannot be held responsible for any consequence of inaccurate or false information provided. You may lose your subscription and membership (without refund) if information provided is false or inaccurate.
- 3.5 Late payment of renewal fees may result in an additional administration fee (currently of £15).
- 3.6 Any queries regarding membership/renewal payments must be made immediately to the Chief Executive.

4. Resignation of membership

- 4.1 Members wishing to resign must provide a minimum of 4 weeks' notice, in writing, addressed to the AFI Chief Executive.
- 4.2 Member benefits, including the use of the AFI logo, cease on the last day of the notice period and may not be used from that date forward.
- 4.3 Resignation must include a declaration that the former member has removed all references to the Association from its printed and electronic stationery, livery and advertising media.
- 4.4 The misuse of logos denoting membership of, or approval by, an organisation can result in a commercial advantage enabling business to be acquired unjustly, and will therefore constitute a breach of the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008.
- 4.5 AFI reserves the right to enforce removal of logos and pursue prosecution for any such misuse or Misrepresentation.
- 4.6 NOTE – member fees will remain due until the date of removal of all references to the association from the former member's corporate stationery, livery and advertising media.
